

Franklin K. Mathiewss was librarian for the Boy Scouts of America, and set out to produce books of stories that he felt were proper and appropriate for Scouts. This book contains 18 stories from such authors as Arthur Conan Doyle to O. Henry, and Mark Twain. They include western cowboy stories, adventure and action, mystery and humor. There is, indeed, something for everyone. This edition of the book contains the eight original illustrations, rejuvenated, and two additional place-, time- and subject-relevant illustrations that are unique to this edition. * This e-book is a true representation, from a high-definition scan of a pre-1923 print version of the book. Unlike other e-copies of the book, it was not produced by using Optical Character Recognition (OCR). OCR-scanning old books is seldom, if ever, error-free. This often results in an e-book with many , ^^, >> and typographic errors when OCR cant read the word or punctuation correctly. * True representation means that if there are typographic, spelling, or grammatical errors that the editor judges to have minimal impact on the books comprehension, they have been preserved; otherwise, they were corrected. * In other words, no changes or as few as possible have been made to either illustrations or text in order to bring you an e-book that is as close to the original as possible.
