

We were now voyaging straight for Maramma; where lived and reigned, in mystery, the High Pontiff of the adjoining isles: prince, priest, and god, in his own proper person: great lord paramount over many kings in Mardi; his hands full of scepters and crosiers. Soon, rounding a lofty and insulated shore, the great central peak of the island came in sight; domineering over the neighboring hills; the same aspiring pinnacle, descried in drawing near the archipelago in the Chamois. Tall Peak of Ofo! cried Babbalanja, how comes it that thy shadow so broods over Mardi; flinging new shades upon spots already shaded by the hill-sides; shade upon shade! Yet, so it is, said Yoomy, sadly, that where that shadow falls, gay flowers refuse to spring; and men long dwelling therein become shady of face and of soul. Hast thou come from out the shadows of Ofo? inquires the stranger, of one with a clouded brow. It was by this same peak, said Mohi, that the nimble god Roo, a great sinner above, came down from the skies, a very long time ago. Three skips and a jump, and he landed on the plain. But alas, poor Roo! though easy the descent, there was no climbing back.
